May 15th, 2020

Small businesses are at the heart of our economy and many are vital to this community. The COVID-19 pandemic has resulted in uncertainty and anxiety for businesses and their employees.

This is where the Regional Relief and Recovery Fund \(RRRF\) comes in. With $962 million nationally, the new Fund will support businesses that are unable to access the Government of Canada's existing relief measures, and enhance access to capital for rural businesses.

On May 13, the Honourable Mélanie Joly, Minister of Economic Development and Official Languages, announced that southern Ontario businesses that can now apply for RRRF. As the RDA for southern Ontario, FedDev Ontario is working with key partners such as the Community Futures Development Corporations (CFDCs) across the region to help businesses during these difficult times.

In southern Ontario, $252.4 million is available as follows:

- $39.4 million to provide rural businesses with access to capital and business support, delivered by southern Ontario's CFDCs; and
- $213 million for SMEs facing financial pressure through FedDev Ontario.

$39.4 million in CFDC funding

CFDCs are providing financial contributions (interest-free loans) to help support fixed operating costs of SMEs, where business revenues have been affected by the COVID-19 pandemic.

Funding available through Cornwall & The Counties Community Futures Development Corporation

In order to provide targeted assistance to the small towns and communities we serve, Cornwall & The Counties CFDC will focus on assisting "main street" businesses, such as retail shops, restaurants, corner stores, and businesses of strategic importance to our communities, with loans up to $40,000.

Please visit our website for more information on eligibility and the application process.

Should you be interested in a loan of $40,000 or more and meet the eligibility criteria outlined on FedDev Ontario's website, you may wish to apply to FedDev Ontario.
